Special To-night... THE WARMAKERS... Two Reel Vitagraph

The Russian ambassador must secure the official war plans. To do so he gives a big dinner and invites the Secretary of War, to whom he previously sends a forged letter telling him to bring the plans. By drugging the wine with "The Sleep of Death", which sends all the guests into a deep, death-like sleep, he takes the plans and copies them. The next day, the Secretary of War enlists the aid of the Secret Service and begins an ardent search for the copy of the plans. This is finally secured by Isabel, wife of the Secretary of War, who sails to Europe with Rosa, a beautiful Russian spy, and finds the paper concealed in the sole of a slipper.

MAURICE COSTELLO plays the part of the Secretary of War, and MARY CHARLESTON his wife.

EAGLE HOTEL IS NOW CLOSED

Only Bid Received at Administrator's Sale is One Dollar. Hotel will Remain Closed Until Disposition Can be made of Leasehold.

For the first time in many years the Eagle Hotel is without a proprietor. This famous hostelry was closed Monday when all guests were given notice to vacate their apartments and the help, with the exception of a watchman and fireman, was discharged. According to advice of the administrator, William Hersh, Esq., this action was necessary because there are no funds on hand to meet current expenses.

At the administrator's sale on Saturday, the leasehold which does not expire until November 1st, 1923 and is at present held by the estate of Richard Ham, had but one bidder, whose bid was one dollar. J. Donald Swope, attorney for the owner of the building, Frank Eberhart, was the only person to make an offer. This was probably due to the current impression that there is a small stock of provisions and liquors on hand; and the fact that a large rental, part payment of which has been deferred during the past winter months, will be due for the approaching season when there is no immediate prospect of more than normal revenue. Neil McConomy, one of the former proprietors was in attendance at the time the property was offered and it was reported he was prepared to pay $2000 for the leasehold and fixtures but he did not bid. He later made an offer of $1000 which was rejected. The administrator will now endeavor to dispose of the property privately, if he is unsuccessful in this effort the fixtures will be sold at some later date. The hotel will remain closed until some adjustment is made.

Ham and McConomy, former employees of the Bellview-Stratford, took charge of the hotel in April 1913 and conducted it during the summer. In the early autumn the partnership was dissolved by Mr. Ham assuming sole proprietorship until the time of his suicide in November. Since that time it has been under the administrator, appointed by the court.

CHURCH RAISED $2000

At Re-dedication Service of St. Paul's, McSherrystown.

The re-dedication of St. Paul's Lutheran church, McSherrystown, took place on Sunday, March 1st. There were two services, morning and afternoon, and notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, the auditorium was comfortably filled at both services. Rev. George W. Nicely, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, Hanover, had charge of the services, assisted by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Baker, Rev. Nicely preached the re-dedication sermon, after which $2,000, the total amount of the cost of the improvements, was subscribed by the congregation, and the church is now wholly out of debt.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock, a platform meeting was held when the following clergymen in addition to those already mentioned were present and made addresses: Rev. Dr. Luther A. Kuhlman, of Gettysburg; Rev. A. M. Heilman, of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, and Rev. George W. Nicely.

The new addition to the church is 24 feet by 28 feet and will be used exclusively as a primary Sunday school. The walls of the main auditorium and large Sunday school rooms have been frescoed and the wood-work revarnished. A new carpet was placed in the church and several other changes made to improve the edifice.

St. Paul's church was built in September, 1892, just 21 years ago, and from a few members the congregation has grown until there are now 150 members in good standing, and a Sunday school with 125 names enrolled.

FRANKLIN COUNTY WITHOUT SALOON

No Decision Having Been Rendered in Applications for License, Bars are Closed. May be "Dry" Sometime.

Chambersburg, Waynesboro as well as all Franklin county, will have an opportunity to see the working of a "dry" county for several days and possibly a week or more. This unique condition is the result of remonstrances filed against every applicant for a license by the W. C. T. U. and other anti-saloon organizations of that county and the fact that the court has not yet rendered a decision.

The saloon licenses expired on March 1. Last week applications were made for saloons throughout the county and protests filed against every one. The cases were heard before Judge Gillan in the Court at Chambersburg and by reason of the mass of evidence and the many cases, the court took each case under consideration and is not expected to render his decision before the latter part of the present week. Therefore the doors of every saloon and place selling intoxicants were closed on Saturday night and will remain closed until a license has been granted.

A vigorous fight has been waged by the saloon advocates and the anti-saloon people in the matter of granting licenses. For several days witness after witness testified in the court at Chambersburg both for and against various saloons. Both sides massed considerable evidence and after hearing all the testimony, Judge Gillan declared that he would not render a decision for some time as the cases merited careful and just consideration and in order to do his duty it would be necessary to make a careful study of each case.

While it is believed that when the opinion is rendered some of the saloons will be granted licenses yet it is also thought that some of the places will be refused the right to sell intoxicants. The anti-saloon people say that with the county "dry" for a week the citizens will be able to work and will find that the county can prosper even more than at present without the saloon. The saloon men claim on the other hand that the citizens after a "dry" week will be glad enough to get back the saloon.

FREIGHT TRAIN DERAILED

Twelve Cars of Western Maryland Leave Track at Maria Furnace.

Twelve cars and an engine of a Western Maryland freight train were derailed Tuesday morning, at the trestle near a curve known as the "horse shoe bend", east of Maria Furnace. The wreck is supposed to have been caused by spreading rails. It occurred about seven o'clock and prevented the passage of the regular passenger trains during the greater part of the day. None of the trainmen were injured and, with the exception of four cars that rolled to the bottom of the embankment and were damaged beyond repair, the train was able to proceed before night. Both east and west bound passenger trains transferred their passengers at the scene of the wreck.

"THE CHOICE OF MOSES"

Was Rev. Gardner's Subject at Monday Night's Revival Service.

Tuesday evening's sermon at the United Brethren Church was delivered by the pastor, on "The Choice of Moses". After the sermon testimonies were asked for, when quite a number spoke of the joy and satisfaction of the Christian life. Converts and others pledging themselves for life service in the Master's kingdom. Still some others asked the prayers of the church. Decisions in one form and another were pledged. Altogether the meeting carried with it a high tide of religious fervor. Owing to the severe storm the congregation was smaller than at any other meeting, but the interest was manifest just the same. The Rev. Mr. Crabill is expected to be here this evening. He will preach the sermon and assist in the service generally.

FAIR PRICES AT MOST SALES

Bad Weather Causes Some to Have Small Attendance. Reports of those Held Last Week. Weikert's Breaks Record.

Despite the adverse condition of the weather and the roads during the past week, sale reports from various sections of the county show, in most instances, a fair attendance and reasonably good prices. In a number of cases, sales that have not realized good prices can trace the cause of their poor attendance to ill-advised advertising. The modern farmer advertises his sale in every paper of general circulation in his territory. The cost for a large sale some times seems high but, when he considers the amount to be realized from the articles he is advertising, the comparison shows what an insignificant sum the newspaper advertising amounts to. Almost without exception when the weather has been such as to permit attendance, the sales advertised in The Times and Adams County News have been good.

Below are given detailed reports of a number of the sales held during the past week:

From the public sale of Curvin King, Reading township, held Tuesday, $1,675 was realized. The sale was largely attended and the stock brought fair prices. Two pairs of mules sold for $200 and $300 a pair, the former being a young pair. Eight cows brought from $60 to $70 a head; heifers, $40 to $50 a head; a bull, $100; 15 shoats, $7 to $9 per head. Abraham Roth, Nashville, was the auctioneer, and Peter Smith and Claude Hartman, clerks. Mr. King will remove to a small farm near Bragtown, this spring.

At the sale of D. S. Reynolds in Straban township, on February 27th, the highest horse brought $204.00 and the highest cow $75.00. One pair of mules sold for $255.00. Total amount was $1988.84; attendance about 300. Thompson was auctioneer and Bream clerk.

Calvin S. Myers' sale in Mount Joy township, last Friday, amounted to $2140. The highest horse brought $175 and the highest cow $60.50. The attendance was small, only about 200 people. Thompson cried the sale and L. H. Collins was clerk.

On Saturday Minter and Freed had sale in Franklin township amounting to $1037.85. A colt brought $80.00 and the highest cow $63. Hogs sold high. Hay brought $15 a ton, corn 90c for 70 lbs. and potatoes sold for 82c per bushel. George J. Martz was auctioneer and R. D. Brame clerk.

The largest sale reported for the season was that of William K. Weikert held Saturday in Mount Pleasant township. It amounted, to $6008.65 with the highest horse selling for $180.50 and the highest heifer for $75. A record-breaking attendance of 1500 people were there and bid three pairs of mules to $1170. The first pair brought $405; second pair, $415; and the third pair sold for $350. The highest price bull brought $82, and an eighteen months old bull sold for $55. Shoats brought as high as $12.50. One sow sold for $49.50. The threshing rig that was advertised was withdrawn, the highest bid on it being $2250. G. R. Thompson called the entire sale, except the threshing outfit, in the remarkably short time of three hours and fifteen minutes.

With an attendance of but 100, the sale of C. E. Eicholtz in Straban township, on Monday, amounted to $1588.99. One pair of mules sold for $417.50 and the highest cow brought $81. Thompson was the auctioneer and Deatrack clerk.

AT our sale Saturday we will sell our two fine horses. See display advertisement. Chas. S. Mumper and Co.—advertisement 1

CARRANZA HALTS U.S. BENTON PROBE

Causes Complication by Vetoing Villa's Plan.

SURE BAUCH TOO IS DEAD

Rebel Leader Says American Was Freed in Juarez and Probably Murdered by His Enemies.

Washington, March 3.—General Francisco Villa has acknowledged the authority of General Venustiano Carranza as the "first chief" of the Mexican Constitutionalists and will not permit the joint American and British commission to examine the body of William S. Benton, the British subject, until the Washington government has consulted Carranza and obtained his consent.

This explanation was made by President Wilson of the sudden and serious complication in the Mexican situation which resulted in the recall of the commission from Juarez to El Paso, Tex., when they were prevented from going to Chihuahua City to examine Benton's body.

Fresh reports indicating that Gustave Bauch, an American citizen, was killed at Juarez, coming close on the complications of the Benton case, surrounded the Mexican situation with added tension.

Carranza, as head of the Constitutionalists, has been called upon for a satisfactory explanation of Bauch's disappearance, and it will be pointed out to the rebel chieftain that failure to protect all foreigners will be likely to lead to grave complications.

The president told callers that the desire of the commissioners to get further instructions from Washington, as well as orders from Villa himself, had necessitated the postponement of the trip, but the president takes it for granted that the commission will start in a few days.

He also indicated that Great Britain would not honor the request of General Carranza to deal directly with him regarding Benton. Such communication, he declared, would involve recognition by Great Britain, which is not prepared to recognize the Constitutionalists at this time.

Should Carranza maintain his attitude of defiance, the president was not prepared to indicate what the next step would be. Carranza's stand is made weaker by the fact that there is a tacit understanding between the powers that the United States is acting for foreign nations in all questions affecting Mexico.

Huerta Police Guard American Club. Mexico City, March 3.—Two hundred police were ordered on guard about the American club and in the streets approaching the building because of the discovery of a conspiracy to attack the building.

Government officials refused to discuss this action, which was taken by personal direction of President Huerta, but they admitted that several arrests had been made in connection with the plot.

It is said that the plot was hatched by opponents of Huerta, who hoped that by inciting an attack on the Americans to force intervention by the United States.

Enemies Killed Bauch, Says Villa. Chihuahua, Mex., March 3.—General Villa indicated his belief that Gustave Bauch is dead, when he said that Bauch, an American, was liberated at Juarez and "doubtless was assassinated by some of his enemies." Villa said that Bauch had many enemies, and added: "Of course, I can't be held to blame for that."

Villa said that the orders delaying the Benton investigating commission, which was halted at Juarez, were issued by General Carranza, who has determined to handle all diplomatic subjects himself.

MAN BLOWN TO PIECES

Had High Explosive Concealed Under Coat and Feet.

Bucyrus, Ohio, March 3.—Frank L. Hennecke, a prominent electrician, left his store in the business section of this city to deliver some high explosive concealed beneath his coat.

When about 100 feet away from his place of business he slipped and fell. The explosion that followed blew him into fragments. He leaves a widow and seven children. The explosion rocked the nearby buildings and threw clerks off their feet.

Falls 60 Feet Into Drift.

Philadelphia, March 3.—Of all the extraordinary experiences reported in connection with the big blizzard here one of the strangest of all fell to John Stallman, a substitute letter carrier attached to the Germantown office. He was blown from a ledge overlooking a quarry at Mermad Lane and Germantown avenue, dropped sixty feet into a big snowdrift and was taken out unhurt.

Car Crushes Girl.

Centre Valley, Pa., March 3.—Katie Young, fourteen years old, slipped on the steps coming out of Sunday school and rolled in front of a Philadelphia-Allentown trolley car. The motorman was blinded by the storm and she was crushed to death.

THREE PERISH IN SCRANTON STORM

1500 Were Marooned Over
Night in Tabernacle.

SEARCH FOR LOST TRAINS

Two of the Victims Perished in Snow-drifts After Losing Their Way in the Blizzard.

Scranton, Pa., March 3.—Three persons have perished in the blizzard which for more than twenty-four hours has blocked railroads and highways, cutting off nearly all traffic from Scranton and its vicinity.

C. R. Wheelock, of Cleveland, Ohio, was overcome while returning from the Billy Sunday meeting to his hotel, and Mrs. Martin Backus, of North Scranton, lost her way going from her daughter's to her own home, two blocks away, and perished in a drift. Sexton Williams, of the Highlands church, near Schuylville, was found frozen in the snow. He had gone to the church to attend to the fires and lost his way in the blizzard.

Nearly 1500 persons were marooned all night in the Billy Sunday tabernacle, unable to get home. Fires had to be kept going to keep them from freezing and sandwiches and coffee were served. Some having gone to the morning had meeting remained through the day.

The Delaware and Hudson railroad is the only one open and trains are running three hours late between Carbondale and Wilkes-Barre. Hundreds of men have been taken to the mountains to dig open the cuts and snowdrifts which cover the railroads.

Three Lackawanna passenger trains due to arrive in Scranton on Sunday night from New York, are tied up somewhere east of Stroudsburg by the blizzard. All are believed to be tied up on the cut-off between Stateford and Hopatcong.

All the Lackawanna wires are out of service and even the wireless system of the road has failed to find the trains.

All traffic on the road was abandoned during the day and all trains from the west are held up in Scranton until the hundreds of section men on the mountain find the lost trains.

On one of the trains is a company of Poli theater players, as well as Sylvester Poli, owner of the Poli string of theaters throughout the country.

Boy Saves Girl and Self. Break Through Ice and Keep Afloat Until Help Comes. Seaford, Del., March 3.—Knowing how to swim saved two lives, when Bailey Brannock, a young schoolboy, and little Dorothy Ward, daughter of Rev. J. L. Ward, broke through the ice on Cambridge creek.

Young Brannock, who is a good swimmer for his age, managed to keep himself and the little girl afloat and from under the ice until a man helped them to the shore.

So weak was the ice that it was necessary to tie a rope to the man before he could venture to the rescue. The two children were saved just as young Brannock was about exhausted.

WATCH COMPANY LOSES

Supreme Court Deals Another Blow at Fixing Retail Prices.

Washington, March 3.—The supreme court refused to review the decision of the federal courts at New York, holding the Waltham Watch company could not fix the resale prices of its watches by retailers.

The Waltham company sued Charles A. Keene, a New York jeweler, seeking to enjoin him from violating the fixed retail price agreement and for an accounting and damages. The effect of the court's decision is that business concerns working under agreements whereby resale prices to the consumer are fixed, probably will have to change their methods of selling to conform to the law.

Marshall Marooned in Train.

New Brunswick, N. J., March 3.—Vice President Marshall was a passenger on a Pennsylvania railroad train which was stalled by the snow near the local station. The train was bound from New York to Philadelphia. The track was blocked by fallen wires and poles.

Aviator Killed in Flight Near Andes. Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic, March 3.—While making a flight near the Andes mountains, George Newberry, holder of several aeroplane records in this country, was killed. Lieutenant Jimenez Lastra, a passenger in Newberry's machine, was badly hurt.

General Horatio C. King Seriously Ill. New York, March 3.—General Horatio C. King, well known as an orator and author and lawyer, is seriously ill at his home in Brooklyn. He was stricken with paralysis while in the Brooklyn Academy of Music. General King is seventy-seven years old.

Philippines Ask Independence. Washington, March 3.—The Philippine assembly adopted resolutions urging the American congress to provide at the present session for the independence of the islands, according to a cablegram received by Delegate Quezon.

FIERCE BLIZZARD SWEEPS THE EAST

15 Dead in New York and Five in Philadelphia.

RAILROADS BADLY CRIPPLED

Wires All Blown Down and Much Damage Done to Buildings in Many Towns by Snow and Wind.

Philadelphia, March 3.—The city of Philadelphia is snowbound. Railroad service in all directions is crippled, and in some cases, particularly to New York, has been discontinued. Telegraphic communication was practically cut off. Five persons are dead in Philadelphia as a result of the big storm.

A real blizzard, the most disastrous since the memorable one of February, 1902, swept over the city. The actual snow fall is about seven inches, but in the suburbs it is much heavier and the high winds have piled up five-foot drifts in many places.

Philadelphia did not receive the brunt of the storm. The entire north-eastern section of the United States is in the grip of the blizzard. New York is isolated. Not a train left or arrived in the city for twelve hours and the interurban surface traffic is stalled.

From Buffalo and Pittsburgh on the west to the Atlantic seaboard and north to New England heavy gales carried snow and sleet, the maximum precipitation in some places being fifteen inches. Telegraphic companies report the damage to their service the most serious in years.

Trolley service was tied up for hours and great damage was done to property by the high winds. In Kensington two untenanted houses were blown down and scores of roofs were ripped from buildings all over the city. A section of the brick wall along Broad street at the Philadelphia National League Base Ball park was blown over.

Fifteen Dead in New York.

New York, March 3.—The isolation of this city, storm-bound by the raging blizzard that swept through this section of the country came partially to an end when the Congressional Limited, a Pennsylvania railroad train, arrived in the terminal, more than fifteen hours behind scheduled time.

Fifteen persons have died or been killed as a result of the terrific storm. Some were overcome and frozen to death while three railroad workers were run down and killed while trying to clear the Long Island railroad tracks.

More than 2500 men, women and children sought shelter in the municipal lodging house. Thousands of other homeless persons were cared for in the lodging houses and missions along the Bowery and the lower East Side.

GALE WORKS HAVOC

Many Cities Are Isolated and the Suffering Is Intense.

The blizzard shut streets and roadways, stalled trolley cars, broke down telephone and telegraph wires and practically tied up business in Norristown. Trains are coming through infrequently. The mail train arrived on time from Philadelphia, drawn by three locomotives. The roads between Norristown and Pottstown and between Norristown and Philadelphia are under many feet of snow.

In Reading traffic is paralyzed on the trolley lines, and steam trains are practically at a standstill. A few trains came in hours overdue. Allentown reported similarly crippled traffic conditions and much damage to buildings.

There is much suffering in Shamokin. The sudden drop in temperature, together with the inability of tradesmen to deliver food supplies is a serious problem.

There is a cessation of industrial activity in Pottsville. The schools are closed, collieries are shut down and manufacturing establishments abandoned work when a majority of their employees found it impossible to report for work.

The electric wires in Tamaqua are down, with prospects for another night of darkness for that town. Roofs were blown off three of the largest manufacturing plants there.

The mines in the Hazleton district are practically closed. All of the industries in that zone are crippled. The buses, which have taken the place of street cars because of the strike, were unable to operate. Much damage was done by the wind.

Trains have failed to reach Easton for several hours. A funeral party, bound from Palmerton, Pa., to Boston, has been detained at the station at Easton awaiting the arrival of the Federal express.

Harrisburg has never been more completely cut off from communication with the outside world. Not in the memory of the oldest inhabitant has traffic been so completely at a standstill. The high winds ripped off a number of roofs, and smashing of windows was general throughout the city.

Reports from Wilkes-Barre says that the Wyoming Valley is slowly recovering from the blizzard. The trains are beginning to run close to speed.

ale time and the civil officials, a slowly bringing order out of chaos.

Williamsport is suffering from the cold. The temperature dropped more than 20 degrees during the night. This is the edge of the storm and the snow was not as heavy in Williamsport as in other points further east.

Falling wires and telegraph poles imperilled the lives of many persons in Lancaster, but linemen already are at work repairing the damage, and a speedy recovery of normal conditions is expected.

WILMINGTON HIT HARD

Great Damage Reported From Baltimore and Maryland Towns.

Wilmington, Del., March 3.—All the wires on the Delaware division of the Pennsylvania Railroad company are down and repairmen are working in a biting wind.

The large grainery and elevators of the Phillips Thompson company were partly unroofed and the roof fell upon the office of the Wilson Line Steamboat company and crushed it.

Four houses on Ferris street were unroofed. The roof of the Wawaset Driving Park stable was torn off and dropped on the tracks of the People's Railway company.

A waiting shed on the Pennsylvania railroad at Holly Oak was blown down and the wreckage carried a quarter of a mile.

The steeple of the Mount Calvary P. E. Church, Baltimore, was torn away and hurled into Eataw street. Windows in houses on Hamilton Terrace were broken and the roof of the rectory was torn off. Roofs and signs were blown down all over the city and thousands of panes of glass were broken.

During the height of the storm the Lutheran Church of the Reformation, at Lanvale and Carolina streets, took fire and was destroyed.

Three thousand barrels of whisky were destroyed when two big warehouses of the Canton Distilleries company, at Canton, Md., a suburb, were burned. The loss was estimated at $300,000. The flames leaped to the A. J. Sackett Fertilizing Machinery works, causing an estimated damage of $30,000.

In Washington houses were unroofed, scores of large windows were blown in, and the trolley traffic in the national capital was at a standstill. Damage to property was heavy.

WOMAN FREEZES AS ESCORT SEEKS HELP

ed Two Miles For Aid.

Hazleton, Pa., March 3.—Miss Ella Sweeney, twenty-two years old, of Freehold, was found frozen to death in a cutter, where her companion, James Bartholdi, had left her in a blinding storm, while he went for assistance.

They were returning from White Haven, when the young woman became cold and terror-stricken because of the raging storm and because there were four or five miles more of hard road to travel.

Her companion stopped the horse within 200 yards of shelter and then tramped two miles over the mountain to Sandy Valley for assistance.

Almost collapsing at the end of his journey, he was not permitted to make the return trip. A searching party found the body.

Snow Plow Cuts Off Man's Leg.

Glassboro, N. J., March 3.—While clearing snow from the tracks at the station here Section Foreman Powers had a leg cut off by the big snow plow that was at work. The snow was blowing so thick that the engineer did not see powers nor the latter the big plow.

Plans Trans-Atlantic Flight.

Nice, France, March 3.—Ronald Garros, aviator, announced here that he would make a trans-Atlantic flight next year, if the ocean had not already been crossed by a navigator by that time. Garros said he would fly by the way of Greenland.

AN ITALIAN SINGER

And Her Last Song

There are popular songs from operas endeared to the hearts of the American people associated with famous singers. The name of "Norma" will always be associated with Giulia Grisi, the Italian prima donna, born in 1810. When only sixteen she appeared in opera at Bologna, and won the hearts of the audience by her sweetest and wonderful compass of voice. It was her heartfelt rendition of "Norma" that has left its impress on musical history. She sang in the United States during the years preceding the Civil War, and even divided honors with Jenny Lind as the most popular singer of her time. She died in 1869, and it is said the last song she sang was the famous selection from "Norma" upon which her reputation was made.

Several of Grisi's favorites are included in "Heart Songs"—the musical library of song, now being placed with its readers by this paper. The coupon, elsewhere in to-day's paper, explains the terms.

The Kitchen Cupboard

FRUIT SOUFFLES.

FRUIT souffles make delicious desserts and are available at all seasons of the year, as any fruits may be used in making them. Successful souffles are light in appearance, nourishing and easily digested.

A Rich Souffle.

Orange Souffle.—Peel and slice six oranges and put in a glass dish alternate layers of oranges and sugar and let stand two hours. Make a custard of yolks of two eggs, a pint of milk and sugar to taste, with a grating of orange peel for flavor, and pour over the oranges when cool enough. Beat the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth, sweeten and flavor to taste and pour over the top. Serve cold.

Peach Souffle.—Peel and then rub through a sieve eight canned peaches. Stir in with them one cupful of powdered sugar and the beaten yolks of three eggs. Whisk steadily for eight minutes, then fold in the whites of six eggs that have been whipped to a stiff froth. Turn into a souffle dish, sprinkle with sugar and bake in a steady, rather cool oven for ten minutes.

Made With Pastry.

Banana Souffle.—Take one cupful of flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of butter, one-half cupful of milk, one egg, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and three bananas. Sift the flour, salt, baking powder and sugar together, add the milk and well beaten egg and mix well. Brush the pan with the melted butter and pour in the mixture. Skin and scrape the bananas, cut into four pieces and press into the dough. Sprinkle with the sugar and bake twenty minutes in a moderate oven. Serve warm with whipped cream.

In a Cake Border.

Apple Souffle.—Take one pint of apple puree, one lemon, three eggs, one ounce of butter, one round of sponge-cake, sugar, apricot jam, a few pistachio nuts and one glass of sherry. Cut the apples in quarters and, without peeling or coring them, stew them till soft with the pared lemon rind and enough water to keep them from burning. When soft rub all through a fine wire sieve. Stir in the raw yolks of two eggs only and put the whites aside. Add the butter and sugar to taste. Cook this mixture for a minute or two over the fire, but do not let it boil. Take the cake and carefully hollow out the center, so as to leave a case. Sprinkle it over inside with the wine and after slightly warming the jam spread it thinly over the outside and sprinkle with chopped pistachio nuts. Beat the three whites to a stiff froth and add them lightly to the apple mixture. Put this into the cake border and place in a quick oven till well puffed up. Dust with sugar and serve immediately.

WIDE LIBERTY OF CHOICE ALLOWED BY THE PRESENT MODES BOTH IN FABRIC AND DESIGN

The present fad for using two or more materials or colors in the same frock makes it possible for any woman to wear the new colors; if the most popular shades for a bodice of chiffon may be added that will effectively offset the becoming color and render the frock even more modish than it would be if the material of the skirt were continued up to the throat. Number 8114 shows such an arrangement and the result is very pleasing. The foundation skirt is of charmeuse in one of the new reds; the over-bodice and tunic is of figured chiffon, effectively relieved with black velvet sash and buttons. A soft cream colored net is used for the undersleeves. Charmeuse ranges in price from $1.50 up and chiffon averages about the same. This costume in size 36 may be made from 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. Number 7132 is a Russian blouse suit for a small boy. As illustrated it is fashioned of white serge with collar, cuffs, stitched belt and pocket of blue. For a child of four this pattern requires 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. A good quality of serge may be purchased from 75 cents a yard and up. Number 8114—sizes 24 to 42. Number 7132—sizes 2, 4 and 6. Each pattern 15 cents.

To obtain either pattern illustrated fill out this coupon and enclose 15 cents in stamps or coin. Be sure to state number of pattern and size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust. Address Pattern Department, care of this paper.

TO make good soup the meat, bones and vegetables must be fresh and wholesome.

The foundation of all soups is stock. This is the liquid in which meat, bones and vegetables have been boiled and should always be made in advance, so that all fat may be removed when cold. Stock is to the cook what the medium or the water is to the painter in oils or in water colors.

Good Lenten Soup.

Macaroni Cream Soup.—Take three ounces of macaroni, two quarts of stock, one carrot, one turnip, one tablespoonful of crushed barley and one teaspoonful of milk.

Break the macaroni into short lengths and boil it in the stock with the carrot and turnip until tender. Remove the carrot and turnip when cooked and stir in the barley with the milk. Serve hot.

This Is Very Fine.

Artichoke Soup.—Take two pounds of Jerusalem artichokes, one ounce of butter, three pints of stock, one-half pint of milk and salt and pepper. Peel the artichokes and cut them up. Fry them in the butter, add the stock and cook until tender. Rub through a sieve. Add the milk and seasonings. Return to the saucepan and reheat. Serve.

A Homely Dish.

Potato Soup.—One dozen potatoes, one ounce of butter, one-half pint of milk, two quarts of stock or water, two onions, two sticks of celery and salt and pepper. Boil the potatoes, drain and mash them thoroughly with the butter and milk. Place these in a saucepan with the onion, celery and stock. Cook until the vegetables are ready. Pass through a sieve and reheat. Season with salt and pepper and serve.

Statesmanlike.

"Do you think your constituents will approve of your attitude on this bill?" "I don't know," replied Senator Sorghum. "I have tried to make speeches enough to keep them from knowing what it is."

Character Revealed by Thumb.

A short thumb, tapering at the tip, denotes an inconstant, changeable nature, particularly in matters of the affections. A man with a tapering thumb cannot concentrate, and has consequently, little continuity, in addition to being unpunctual and unable to work except in spurts. Such a man takes up many things, but finishes nothing properly, and often makes others suffer from his indecision.

An Irish Rebel

A Story For St. Patrick's Day

By NORA MCCARTHY

It was in 1798 that the last attempt of any importance was made to free Ireland by violence. These revolutions have always been the work of the Catholic party, which lives almost anywhere in Ireland except in the province of Ulster, where many of the people are Protestants. So Ireland from the beginning of her revolts has been in the position she is now with reference to home rule, Ulster against the rest of the island.

One of the most earnest rebels in this 1798 trouble was Patrick Mulligan, a young fellow, who, like many another Irishman, was named for St. Patrick, who introduced Christianity into Ireland.

After the Irish revolt of 1798 Pat was found to be so deeply dyed in treason that all his inventive powers, assisted by those of his friends, were not sufficient to keep him from indictment and trial, and he was sentenced to be hanged by the neck until he was dead. When the judge put on the black cap he asked the condemned man if he had anything to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon him.

"Devil a word, your honor," said Pat, with an impressive bow to the judge, "have I to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon me, for I'm the worst rebel in Ireland, but I have something to say when I shall be hanged. I have the honor to bear the name of the patron saint of Ireland. This year St. Patrick's day comes on Friday, two weeks from tomorrow, and I should be obliged if your honor would sentence me to die on that blessed day."

The judge granted this modest request and after he had passed sentence asked Pat just why he wished to be hanged on the saint's anniversary. Pat replied that St. Patrick was stronger than the king of England and would have a care for any one who should be swung off on that day.

The following two weeks were a series of receptions on Pat's part, everybody he knew coming to the jail to see him and bringing him delicacies. Instead of acting like a man who each day was twenty-four hours nearer the gallows, the nearer drew the time of his execution the merrier he grew. When asked by his friends why he was in such good spirits he said that he was named for St. Patrick, was to be hanged on St. Patrick's day and devil a bit would the saint suffer him to hang at all.

His faith affected his friends to such an extent that they set about trying to get a pardon for him. But Pat had given the government so much trouble, not only in times of open rebellion, but of unrest, that they were determined to get rid of him. So Pat's friends were obliged to try another plan. One of them, a collier, riveted together some straps to go under his arms with a hook at the back of the neck. Another told Pat of the plan to save him from death, while a third the night before the execution got the sheriff drunk, and in the morning he was not in a condition to officiate on the scaffold. So he appointed a deputy, and that deputy was the man who got him drunk.

When Pat was brought out to be hanged he made a bow to the crowd waiting to see him swung off and said: "Good morning to you. It gives me great pleasure to afford you amusement on this blessed morning." He was led up on to the scaffold and, acting on the instructions he had received, objected to the rope on the ground that it was not safe, being too light and might let him down and hurt him. So another rope was produced, and the deputy sheriff when he came to slip the noose over Pat's head contrived to catch the end in the hook at the back of the neck.

Now, there were those present who, if they had perceived what was going on, would have reported the fact, and though Pat might have been saved for the time being, he would have later been strung up in earnest without waiting for another St. Patrick's day to come around. So the deputy was obliged to go through the motions, and the rope was put around the neck of the culprit. It was intended that the hook should relieve the strain entirely, but it did not work as well as expected, and Pat was jarred senseless.

The deputy was obliged to let him hang an hour, but by setting ahead the hands of his watch he reduced the time to forty minutes. Then Pat was cut down, put into a coffin and driven away in a cart.

The joggling of the cart resuscitated him, and he was about to sit up when he was held down by a friend, and it was not till the cart struck a wood that he was taken out of his gawsoner receptacle. He was then given a disguise and some money that had been collected for him and told to make for the coast and take the first vessel sailing for America. Pat bade them all goodbye and the next evening was concealed on a ship about to sail for Philadelphia.

Pat found the United States recently revoiced colonies of Ireland, and there were as many patriots there as in Ireland. So he was much pleased with his surroundings and spent the first few years in his new home trying to organize an invasion of Ireland by his friends with a view to helping her to an independence similar to that gained by the American colonies. But finally he settled down and became an American citizen.

Them Was the Days.

Every man likes to say that when he was younger he was quite handy with his mitts. Also that he was a devil among the girls.—Atchison Globe.

WOMAN JUMPS FROM BOAT

Handbag Containing Letters Found on Deck.

Philadelphia, March 3.—Mystery surrounds an unidentified woman who, it is thought, jumped into the Delaware river from the deck of the ferry-boat Salem on Sunday night.

Maurice Kaplan says that just as the boat was entering the dock at Philadelphia he saw a woman walk across the rear deck to the men's side of the boat, stand on the huge iron cleat for an instant and then jump overboard.

He was unable to give a good description of the woman because of the driving snow. He reported the matter to a deckhand quietly, in order to avoid excitement among the passengers.

A handbag was found on the deck, which contained two handkerchiefs, 70 cents, a small perfume vial, a box of talcum powder, three metal springs about three inches long and a sealed letter, unstamped, addressed to Peggy Chichester, with the figures "No. 52" at the bottom. It is thought that the "52" is the first part of the Chichester woman's address.

MATTY SIGNS WITH

NEW YORK GIANTS

Famous Pitcher Rejects Federals $65,000 Offer.

Marlin, Texas, March 3.—Rejecting an offer of $65,000 from the Federal league, Christy Mathewson, the star pitcher of the New York Giants, has signed a contract to play with the New York team the coming season.

A flat offer of $65,000 for three seasons' work as manager of a Federal league team was received by Mathewson from President Gilmore, of the Federal league.

The message sent to Mathewson at the Giants' training camp follows:

"Newspaper reports state you did not take Federal league offer seriously. Get acquainted with Federal league officials and you will be convinced we are not foolhardy. I will give you $65,000 for three years' services as manager of a Federal league club. Fifteen thousand in advance. If satisfactory, meet me, Waldorf hotel, New York, Thursday, my expense. Wire answer Chicago."

President Gilmore said he anticipated a hot fight in his effort to land Mathewson, because President Hempstead, of the Giants, was at the training camp and that he would not let "Matty get away if he could help it."

AMMUNITION BLOWS UP

Binghamton Firemen Fight Blaze in State Armory.

Binghamton, N. Y., March 3.—Exploding ammunition added exciting danger to a fire in the state armory in this city.

The blaze was discovered just before midnight in the cellar of the Babcock, Hinds & Underwood's four-story hardware store and spread to the state armory, where thousands of rounds of rifle and pistol ammunition had been stored.

It was not until 2 o'clock that the firemen were able to control the blaze, and in the meantime firemen and spectators were imperiled by the fusillade set off by the heat.

HER INTESTINES MIXED

Surgeons Find Woman's Internal Organs Are Reversed.

Elkins, W. Va., March 3.—When surgeons operated on Julia Laura Cassell, of Widdell, at the Davis Memorial hospital here, they found her internal organization just the reverse of that of all other normal human beings.

She was operated on for appendicitis and her appendix was found to be on the left side instead of the right. It was also found that the spleen was in the right side, instead of the left; the liver on the left side and, strangest of all, the heart was on the right side. Surgeons stated that the woman could recover.

THE NEW SPRING DRESS GOODS

THERE are several very important reasons for early buying of Dress Goods—one is the scarcity of dress makers, and the other is the complete and choice stock we are now showing. Owing to the Fashion for Spring Gowns, everything is finished soft and comes in the lighter weights, even the Suit and Coat materials are lighter in weight than formerly.

For Gowns and Dresses

Crepe Premier, French Crepes, Wool Taffetas, Ottomans, French Serges and many others in the new Greens, Wisterias odd shades of Greys, Mahogany, Tango Color, New Tans and Brown, Alice Blue, Navy and others.

For Suits

Waffle Weaves, Wool Ratines, Shepherd and Over Checks, Serges, Whip Cords, Prunellas, Broadcloths, &c.

For Separate Skirts

Ratine Plaids, Old Scotch Plaids, Over Plaid Checks, Stripes, &c.

For Separate Coats

Wistrals, Wool Ratines, Fancy Cloths, Checks, &c.

The new tariff laws have made Wool Dress Goods from 20 to 30 per cent less price than formerly—so that goods that were previously $1.00 are now 75 to 85c and those that were $1.25 are now $1.00.

[This matter must not be reprinted without special permission.]

Not only will it help pay for his keep, but the stallion will keep in better condition and health, if he is worked during the months preceding the mating season.

Analysis shows that the manurial product of a hog in the course of a year is worth $10, a feature that is worth taking into account in addition to the large profit that is usually realized at marketing time.

Some one has figured out that the manurial value of three tons of hay is $32.43. This estimate is based on a chemical analysis showing the value of the nitrogen, phosphates, potash and lime which this amount of hay contains.

There is no advantage whatever in the farmer's wife making butter when there is a creamery within reach, and this is particularly true when the home dairy butter has to sell for a couple of cents a pound below that received for the creamery product.

Not long ago in Suffield, Conn., the cause of an epidemic of diphtheria was traced to used pencils that were distributed among the pupils daily and gathered up each evening. The habit of putting the pencils in the mouth furnished ample opportunity for the spread of the diphtheria germs.

The New York legislature has lately set aside $25,000 for the establishment of a horseshoeing department in connection with the school of agriculture at Cornell university. A graduate of the horseshoeing school has been secured to take charge of the new department. The new course ought to fill a definite and practical want.

The Alabama experiment station reports that 175 degrees is the best temperature at which to scald hogs. Lower than this is too good, and water that is hotter tends to set the hair. It was also found that zero weather was not necessary at killing time, provided the meat was allowed to cool thoroughly before being put up.

In all the territory where hog cholera or other swine plagues have raged the past season and in many instances wiped out whole herds a brood sow will be a sort of gold mine next spring. It will pay to take mighty good care of these sows, both for their own sake and for the sake of the little one which will be putting in an appearance before a great while.

Of interest to those homesteaders who may be thinking of homesteading in the dry farming areas of the west and southwest may be mentioned the fact that as a result of surveys and investigations which have been made by the department of agriculture 267,375,000 acres have been classified as non-irrigable. This means that if these acres produce any more profitable crop than sagebrush, soap weed and prairie dogs it will have to be without the aid of ditch water.

Rheumatism and Bright's Disease

Prof. Budlong was Quickly Relieved of Both afflictions by Using Rheuma.

If you suffer from any form of Rheumatism, remember that RHEUMA goes to work quickly to remove the cause, not simply to relieve the distress. Many years' use has demonstrated that it goes to the seat of the disease and expels the poisonous matter through the natural channels—the kidneys, bowels, liver and skin.

For many years I was troubled with Rheumatism, also with Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I suffered awfully. Tried many advertised remedies. After using your truly remarkable preparation, RHEUMA, I was fully cured.—Prof. C. J. Budlong, Sound View, Conn.

NEGRO SONGS

The only negro songs that will ever find a place in the history of music, were composed by the slaves of the South before the war between the state. All folk songs originate among a peasantry. And the only peasantry that ever existed in the United States were the negro slaves.

There have been no negro melodies composed by that race since 1860. And as the conditions that then existed have vanished, never to appear again, it is safe to say that the original slave music is the last of its kind.

"Heart Song" contains a symposium of old negro melodies—and this feature alone would make the ownership of it extremely desirable. But these melodies comprise only one of ten classes in the volume. This unrivalled song book is needed in every home. Wherever there is a piano or organ "Heart Songs" is absolutely a necessity.
